five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

CITY NEWS.

OUR AGENTS.—Messrs. Norris & Bro., Lexington, and Mr. J. D. Pollard, Frankfort, are our agents. The Daily Democrat can be had at either of the above news depots every morning.

Colonel J. H. Ham, Indiana Military Agent, is still full of business. During the last few weeks there have been furnished the various hospitals in Jeffersonville and Louisville some 300 barrels of onions and 100 barrels of potatoes, besides 70 barrels of wheat and many other articles necessary to the comfort of soldiers. Tobacco, or articles very much desired by them, are given such as call.
Much of the time of the agent is taken up in procuring military passes for citizens going South to visit their friends in hospitals in Kentucky and below. Under present orders, no pass can be obtained at this place. The only way to obtain one is to apply to General Miller, commander of the post at Nashville.
Those desiring to go below should endeavor to procure a pass before they come here, which will save them time and money. It takes money to remain at the hotels here, awaiting a pass from Nashville.

THE COMING DRAFT—THE CITY'S QUOTA.
The draft which was to have taken place on the 15th of the present month has been postponed for the present, and we now have a chance to make up the deficiency of the city and thus relieve us of the draft. Persons continuing to enroll their names freely in the subscription book at the Mayor's office, and a large sum has thus been collected. During the past week the Mayor has put in one hundred and sixteen volunteers, all of which have been placed to the credit of the city. If our citizens will but come forward and subscribe at once the required number of recruits will be procured and there will be no draft in our city. Let the matter be attended to.

JEFFERSONVILLE ITEMS.—Ten citizens of Jeffersonville have subscribed over twenty thousand dollars for bounties to buy out that township from the draft.

The One Hundred and Forty-fifth regiment of Infantry, from the Third district, arrived at Jeffersonville yesterday morning, and passed over to Louisville.

At Columbus, Saturday night, as the train through the above region was passing through Columbus, Indiana, a private named Mable Bailey, living at that place, fearing that he would not be able to visit his friends, undertook to jump from the train. He fell upon the track and was cut into two parts.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday, about noon, two horses attached to a buggy ran away down Chestnut street. On the corner of Sixth and Chestnut they ran upon the sidewalk, where were a number of ladies and children returning home from church, knocking down Mrs. Thorne and one or two others. The former lady was seriously hurt, and the two latter slightly. The horses wheeled and ran down Sixth street to Walnut, where they collided with the pump, breaking the axle of one and smashing up the buggy to a considerable extent. The horses were caught there. We heard that there were others but, could learn no particulars.

Forty-fifth Indiana regiment made their appearance in front of the barracks, yesterday, making a large force of "viable" men, and made their appearance in front. A detachment of Federals made a dash in their rear and succeeded in capturing ten or fifteen of them, with their baggage, and put them in the guard-house. The others made their escape silently and without being seen. One of the party, who was the wife of one of the soldiers, was afterwards released.

UNITED STATES COURT.—During the past week the Grand Jury of this court have been in session, and they have returned a number of indictments, but we refrain from mentioning them, as it would be injudicious. The regular term of the court, Hon. Bland Billard presiding, commences to-day, when the call of the docket of the District Court will be commenced. During the present term of the court a number of interesting cases will be commenced, the particulars of which will be given in the Democrat as the cases are investigated.

SOCIETY OF THE ALUMNI—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE, LAW DEPARTMENT.—The society of the alumni of the University of Louisville, Law Department, will meet at the law school lecture room, on Friday morning, the 25th inst., at 10 o'clock. In the evening, at the commencement of the law department, an oration will be delivered before the Society of the Alumni by J. Guthrie Cole, Esq., of this city. It is hoped there may be a large attendance of the alumni of the law school present at the meeting.

We learn that a party of guerrillas, in Federal uniform, during the early part of last week, visited and robbed several residents on the Salt River road about four miles from the city. They fired upon a farm hand, and afterwards entered his place, swearing and destroying everything about there. The man narrowly escaped by flight. These unauthorized visits make a residence in that neighborhood a dangerous one. The band were afterwards recognized as being composed of being connected with some command near the city.

BARRACKS No. 1.—Yesterday was not a "day of rest" at the barracks. Thirty companies arrived from various points, twenty-one from Detroit and twenty-four from Nashville. Eighty-eight men were sent to Baltimore, seven to Elizabethtown, forty to Washington, forty-four to Cairo, five to Indianapolis and two to Cincinnati.

THE VARIETIES.—Fifth street, has once more become the scene of attraction. We learn that the old favorites, Lizzie Louise and Mr.
J. L. Davis, have returned and will commence an engagement at the Varieties this evening.
Also Miss Annie and Warren Burdwell, late of the Chicago Varieties, who are excellent in their respective roles. We expect a rich treat to-night. Go early and secure your seats.

REBEL PRISONERS.—Eighteen commissioned officers and privates, all belonging to Tennessee regiments, arrived from Nashville at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Besides the above the following rebel surgeons were received: Wm. E. Brickell, surgeon Eighth Arkansas; Thos. Foster, Asst. Surgeon, Tenth Texas; and John P. McGee, Surgeon Chestnut's corps.

The Nashville train arrived on time last night. All was quiet along the road.

Amusements.—The benefit of Miss Dora Shaw on Saturday night was a complete success. To-night the great Warren combination, consisting of Mr. Wm. Warren, Miss Josie Orton and Miss Emily Mesley, commence an engagement in the comedy of the Helms-Law and the comedy of Poor Fiddly.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—Mr. Adams closed a most successful engagement at the popular place of amusement Saturday night. To-night Mr. S. W.
Ashley, the leading comedian of the company, takes his annual benefit. This is an occasion long looked forward to by all members of the stock company with pride, and we hope that Mr. Ashley will have such a benefit as his merits as a gentleman and actor deserve; and if this be the case, the house will be more than crowded. Mr. Ashley has been with us but the present season, and during that short time he has gained hosts of friends by his admirable acting, who will no doubt testify their appreciation of him on this occasion. The bill selected for the occasion is an excellent one, consisting of Everybody's Friend and the Irish Emigrant.

VARIETIES.—The varieties will be a popular place of amusement this week. The minstrels who are performing there "can't be beat," and we are satisfied that the house will be crowded every night.
Not only so, but see them and you will enjoy yourself heartily.

We learn there is a bill before the Legislature, that has already passed the Senate by a very large vote, allowing the clerk of the Jefferson circuit court fees in criminal cases.
A more meritorious bill has not been presented to the Legislature this winter. Why it is that the Commonwealth should require her circuit court clerks to perform work in criminal cases for nothing, while she pays every other officer, is not only incongruous, able, but singularly unjust.

The clerk of the Jefferson circuit court performs more than one half of the criminal business of the State. On account of the times his civil docket has decreased at least three fourths, while his criminal docket has increased in the same proportion. He has no misdemeanor cases from which to obtain fees like other circuit court clerks, neither has he any chancery business. He must look alone to his common law cases, and they are scarcely sufficient to pay him his stationery. He has to employ a competent deputy to assist him in the criminal court at a large salary, that he could do without were it not for this large and increasing criminal business. Many other officers are forced upon him by reason of this heavy criminal docket, for all of which he has to pay out of his own pocket for the benefit of the State. We call the special attention of the Legislature to this bill, believing that all that is required is for them to properly understand the facts for them to do justice to a public officer.

We hope the House will pass the bill just as it came from the Senate.

LETTER.—A letter passed through the postoffice a few days ago, bearing the following postal inscription:
As well as the whirlwind, in its track on the Owl drive, regardless of the wind or the rain, I'll cut the road to you, then back on your plow.
For "Samson" must get me, or there'll be a row.
I'll cut the road to you, then back on your plow. (I'll cut the road to you, then back on your plow.)

To hear from a soldier from "Old Union," On the back of the letter was inscribed the following lines:
With the speed of the avalanche, that roars down
The grand old Sorato, I'm anxious to slide.
I'll cut the road to you, then back on your
plow.

through Columbus, Indiana, a private named Mable Bailey, living at that place, fearing that
upon the track and was cut into two parts.

NEW GROCERY FIRM.—J. B. ALEXANDER & CO., BANKERS, NEW YORK.—We publish this morning the card of Messrs. J. B. Alexander & Co., Bankers, No.
37 William street, New York. Mr. Alexander was formerly connected with the Southern Bank of Kentucky, and more recently, together with Albert Kelly, in the banking business in St. Louis. There are few more sagacious or far-seeing financial men in the country.

Having recently established themselves in New York as bankers, we take pleasure in directing the attention of our readers, of merchants and citizens generally to their house.
Possessing special means, enlarged experience and the general confidence of their Western friends, we especially direct the notice of our readers to the fact that they have established themselves in New York.

It will be seen, by reference to our advertising column, that Messrs. J. B. Alexander & Co. have formed a copartnership for the purpose of conducting a general wholesale and retail grocery and commission business, at No. 231 Market street, between Brook and Floyd streets. These gentlemen are all hands at the business and familiar with it in all its details, and are favorably known to the public. They open with a fine stock, and we take pleasure in referring our readers to their house for any and everything in the grocery line.

BENEFIT OF C. J. HEARTWELL.—This talented actor, for a long time a leading man at the Louisville Theatre, will have a complimentary benefit tendered him next Friday night, at Masonic Temple. Mr. Heartwell is an actor of ability, and during his connection with the Louisville Theatre he gained hosts of friends, who will not forget him on that occasion.

Saturday officer Wm. Cross arrested Catherine Shanahan, who had in her possession a lot of clothing marked G. D. perforce, which clothing had no doubt been stolen.
She will have a hearing before Judge Johnson this morning.

Miss KITTY BLANCHARD.—We learn that this popular danseuse and gifted actress is to have a benefit at Wood's Theatre on Friday night. She deserves a crowded house.

Mr. H. K. Hines has been presented with a splendid gold badge, by some citizen, for his gallantry at the burning of the Galt House.

NEW RECRUIT.—The One Hundred and Forty-fifth Indiana (New) regiment, blue and dressed and fully armed, arrived here yesterday en route for the front.

Meers, Glazebrook, Bro. & Co. have a large supply of mackerel, just received. We invite the attention of dealers and consumers to their house.

DEPORTS.—Three deserters arrived from Detroit yesterday, five from Nashville, three from Lexington and three from Cincinnati.

The Ladies' Knitting Society give one of their splendid balls in the large hall of the Masonic Temple to-night.

Mr. J. M. Heister, of Adams' Express Company, has our thanks for Cincinnati papers of yesterday.

Tork A. RECESS.—The Court of Appeals, which adjourned Friday, took a recess until the 20th of March next.

One hundred and fifty-nine new recruits arrived from Springfield yesterday.

Letter from Nashville.
(Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.)
NASHVILLE, Feb. 17, 1865.
Military matters remain quiet in this department. Gen. Thomas is in the city and no immediate movements are anticipated. The railroad beyond this point are all being thoroughly repaired.

"THE DEPARTMENT OF KENTUCKY." I learn on high authority that the State of Kentucky has been detached from the Department of the Cumberland and been formed into a separate department, to be known hereafter as the "Department of Kentucky." It will, however, still be in command of Gen.
Thomas. It is known here that Gen. Palmer has been appointed to succeed Burbridge in command of Kentucky.

West Tennessee, which has heretofore been in Gen. Canby's department, has been added to the Department of the Cumberland. This places the entire State in Gen. Thomas' command, a considerable change, and one which is warmly welcomed. The department was formerly divided into three districts, each with its own commander. The change will be made on the 1st of March next, and will be a great benefit to the State.

TRAIN CAPTURED BY REBELS.
The passenger train on the Nashville and Detroit railroad, which left this city on Thursday morning, was captured by a squad of rebels at Fort Smith, Mo., and the train Franklin. No particulars have yet arrived.

"JOHN AVONTO."
This distinguished individual, whose property in this city and Memphis is immense, retained from the Congress and the State and took the solemn oath in time to save his estate.

ROD'S ARMY.
A deserter who arrived here yesterday direct from Tapelo, Miss., reports that Taylor and Forrest at that place, in winter quarters. They have got upwards of five hundred Union prisoners in a pen, and they are in a suffering condition. The rebels are reported as absolutely demoralized and absolutely unable to take into battle. They are on short rations and suffering from lack of clothing.

GUERRILLA OUTRAGES.
(Guerrillas are murdering and robbing Union men in the country around this city, and unless a force is sent out to drive them off, they will compel the citizens to leave their homes.
They are now operating against the railroad.)

THE PROPOSED NEW COURT.
GENTLEMEN: It is represented at Frankfort that the Judge, clerk and sheriff of the Jefferson County Court favor the bill now pending to merge the civil business (as the bill terms it) of the County Court into the proposed Court of Common Pleas. I say that such statements, in the aggregate, and in detail, jointly and severally, are without basis in truth, and have authority for what I say.

All right-thinking men must look upon the attempt by which this bill is to be passed through the Legislature as meriting reproof and condemnation rather than favor.

I must say that I regard it as a trick unworthy the authority of the Legislature, and as a gross and deliberate attempt to deceive the people. In all my researches I have not found any man in Louisville who had knowledge that such a proposition was pending or would ever be presented to the Legislature.

Let me explain more fully. It has been arranged by the friends of the proposition for a new court here, that the business of the city and county demanded it—that the circuit court was overburdened, and that the people amount almost to a denial of justice. But after screwing and re-screwing and reeking their brains for employment, and to fill up the time of the Legislature, they have at last made a guerrilla raid upon the county court and merge the functions of that modest and unpretending tribunal into this grand and magnificent new court.

The result of it is that the people of the county are to be deprived of the right of a trial by jury, which is one of the most sacred rights of a citizen. The result of it is that the people are to be deprived of the right of a trial by jury, which is one of the most sacred rights of a citizen.

THE COURT HERE STANDS AS THEY ARE.
The people are satisfied. The courts were not made for lawyers. The lawyers were made (those that are) for the people. The people are the basis of the courts. The courts are made for the people. The people are the basis of the courts.

Bucara Vista Oil Mining Company.
The attention of the public is called to the following correspondence. If there are any good grounds to doubt the character of the indication, this letter of Dr. Smith removes them.
We do not see how there could exist greater indications to bore for oil. Dr. Smith is too well known to require, at our hands, any indorsement of his views. We refer our readers to the correspondence.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 18, 1865.
Prof. J. Lawrence Smith:
DEAR SIR: There seems to be some doubt in the minds of a few of our friends as to the actual opinion of our countrymen in the Harrison county, Indiana, the last clause in your published report of being satisfactory.
By giving us your opinion on the subject you will oblige us very specially.
Yours respectfully,
ROBT. ATWOOD,
R. J. MENEFEE.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 18, 1865.
GENTLEMEN: Your note is received asking my opinion regarding your 1444 acres of land in Harrison county, Indiana. In reply, I would simply state that the petroleum indications are of a most favorable character and your tract of land, and, in my opinion, I justly the thorough development contemplated by the company.
Yours respectfully,
J. LAWRENCE SMITH.
